

CHIARA “SATS” DI STEFANO

EDUCATION AND AWARDS

Vancouver Film School – Writing for Film, Television, and Games

AUG 2024 – AUG 2025, VANCOUVER, B.C.

- Earned the Academic Achievement Award for highest grades amidst their graduating cohort.

University of British Columbia – Bachelor of Arts

SEPT 2020 – APR 2024, VANCOUVER, B.C.

- Earned High Distinction at graduation for exceptional grades within the field of Interdisciplinary Studies focusing on storytelling.

EXPERIENCE

Diversity In Games – Volunteer

JUN 2023 – JUN 2024

- Directed speakers and attendees of various community events such as the 2023 Creative Campfire.
- Represented the DIG team at the Women In Animation 2024 Fireside Chat with Rebecca Sugar and Ian Jones-Quartey.

UBC Annual Giving – Call Centre Attendant

MAY 2023 – SEPT 2023

- Conversed professionally and cheerfully with UBC alumni so as to solicit donations for bursaries and emergency funds.
- Worked diligently inputting data in a fast-paced environment.

Author's Assistant – Social Media Manager

AUG 2017 – SEPT 2022

- Planned and instituted informative and entertaining social media marketing plans for authors Tellulah Darling and Deborah Wilde.

SKILLS AND SPECIALTIES

- Highly accomplished at storytelling both visual and written.
- Experienced in story editing from advising author Deborah Wilde in matters related to narrative structure.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills in English and French.
- Familiar with Final Draft, Twine, Canva, Google Suite, and Word.